A note from the ALUMNI DIRECTOR Shelley Bacon

It was Academy Day 2017, and sophomore Keira Johnston was in tears. She was visiting from Palisades Christian Academy (formerly Spokane Junior Academy), but knew she would have to stay in the dorm when she came to UCA her junior year. The thought petrified her, and brought her to tears. Fast forward to just after graduation 2019. Keira was in tears again. This time the tears were different. I stopped to give her a hug and inquire about how she was doing. "It isn't my campus anymore," she bemoaned.

"Yes, it is," I replied. "It will always be your campus. You will come back to visit often, and in a few years, you will be in a position to help kids just like you come to UCA and receive the same tremendous blessing you have." She smiled her big Keira-sized smile that had become routine after she got settled and grew to consider UCA her second home, and returned my hug before continuing to the dorm to finish moving out.

In this issue of the Alumni Echoes, we are celebrating the bonds formed at UCA. As you read these pages, we hope the stories will bring back many fond memories you have of your time here as well.

Until next time -

Shelley Bacon

UCA has been a huge turning point in my life when I first attended in the fall of my junior year of high school. I didn't like it here at first because it's a boarding school and I had to be away from my parents. However, it has helped me to become more social than I had been before. I have more friends than I ever could have hoped for and have improved in so many ways. Many of the staff have made such an impact on the lives and minds of all the students. They connect with us while in classes and on supervision in the cafeteria and around campus by playing sports and talking with them. The staff are all very supportive and love to hang out with us. I have also begun to grow my relationship with God this year, which I have been wanting to work on but didn't make time for. I don't have any suggestions for change here because I love every part of it. I'm just blessed to be here in the wonderful environment provided for us. I love all of the staff and people here.

This is a private boarding school that I started attending 2nd semester of sophomore year. I was pretty skeptical at first, but soon enough the beautiful campus, personal and friendly staff and definitely the students made me love the place. It grew me into an amazing young woman through dorm life, leadership opportunities and the environment of kindness. This school doesn't have a bullying problem which is amazing! The love there changed my life.

I went to this school for all four years. I loved it. I loved all my teachers and they were always so willing to help. I also made life long friends there. It felt like everyone was family.

SPECIAL FEATURE:

UCA GIRLFRIENDS

Like a favorite recipe, friendship takes a pinch of this and a dash of that to create a winning combination. Ours simmered for about 12 years after UCA sent us, the graduating class of 1997, out into the world. All six of us (Becky [Lundquist] Caswell, Rachel [Jenks] Coleman, Sherisa [Beerman] Finkbiner, Katie [Kyle] Johnson, Lindy [Renck] Malott, and Ronda [Masters] Mundy) studied at Walla Walla University, attended one another's weddings, and settled in the Pacific Northwest. Myspace updates and yearly Christmas cards became our way of keeping in touch until the winter of 2009 found Sherisa at Ronda's house and Becky at Katie's on the same weekend. We spontaneously agreed to meet up at Lindy's place, as she lived in between. This simple afternoon ignited an idea, a plan to keep in better touch. We congregated next in Wenatchee, our young children in tow, and our yearly get togethers began. We've enjoyed a variety of settings for our meet-ups from spa days in Spokane to camping in Leavenworth with our biggest trip taking us to Hawaii this spring in celebration of our 40th birthdays.

What brought us back together after so many years? To answer that, we go back to the beginning where we first met on a boarding campus surrounded by wheat fields. Friendships forge from shared experiences like note night, calling home on lobby pay phones and singing around a campfire. Friendships grow while learning together from favorite teachers like Ms. McGuire, Mr. Peach and Mr. Martling. And friendships deepen during activities like backpacking in the Wallawas, a biology trip to Rosario and Senior Survival. The root of our friendship, our time at UCA, certainly provides us with many laughs and fond memories to reminisce about.

But what keeps our bond relevant in our everyday, busy lives? With 16 kids between us (the oldest is twelve and the youngest five), we need a quick way to share and connect. Enter our "highschool girlfriends" group text message where we send pictures, share updates and reach out for advice. Sometimes we even raise a virtual coffee cup to one another. We've celebrated new babies, career achievements, and our children's firsts. We've encouraged during job changes, unexpected moves, and returning to school. And we've supported during family struggles, cancer, and depression. We've walked life together over the past 22 years with all its highs and lows, and we've reminded each other that we are not alone, that we are loved. Our group of brave and inspirational women have become lifelong friends. We count this incredible friendship as one of God's most beautiful gifts, and we are thankful to UCA for its part in bringing us together.

It is an awesome school! The care and love of the staff members is what impacted my life most. It wasn't just about an education, but about growing up into a strong young person for God.

UCA was the first school I felt I could call home. The environment at UCA fosters not only a spiritual connection with Christ, but encourages students to step outside their comfort zone. UCA encourages students to put 110% effort into everything they do, academically, physically, spiritually, and mentally. UCA was a safe place for me to find myself after being in a deep hole and in my shell. I was safe to be involved in sports, strive academically to perform at my best, persevere in music, and grow spiritually with my Savior. UCA allowed me to grow from being a shy, timid person to the leader I am today. I am proud to call UCA MY high school!

My experience at UCA shaped the person I am today. I was spiritually blessed, socially supported, and felt prepared for college. I would recommend the experience to everyone and wish I had attended for two years rather than only one!

Coming from small schools and home-schooling, UCA broke me out of my shell and gave me a second family - both with the staff and other students. Now, with my brother there as a freshman, I love going back and visiting, reminiscing on all the great memories that were made. Thank you UCA for providing an amazing environment that is rich in God and encouraging spiritual and scholastic growth.

UCA is definitely what you make it, so make it great!! The relationships I had at UCA helped me prepare for the real world. My teachers wanted to be there and put their all into each one of us. The opportunity to develop an adult relationship with Christ in a judgement free environment was instrumental in my life today. I am grateful for a the "protected" high school environment.

I attended Upper Columbia Academy 1992-1994. It is one of the places who formed who I am today. With amazing academics, committed staff and dedication professionals I was in the best environment to learn, grow and develop into a capable adult. Thank you UCA for being part of my lifelong journey!

My grown children attended UCA over 10 years ago and they loved their academy, served as officers and developed life long friendships. Staff were awesome and some continue to work there today. Thank you staff for your Christian commitment to our children and for serving them; leading them to Jesus Christ. God bless you all who serve our youth! 💎💎💎

"... the tight friendships you make with everyone ... it doesn't compare to anything else."

UCA was the best time of my life. There are far too many memories to type out but my teachers helped influence the time I had there and it is sad to see that most of them have left. Gymnastics tours were always a blast, outdoor ed, senior survival, and all the tight friendships you make with everyone from being in a boarding school. It doesn't compare to anything else. This school is always in my heart.

Share a memory of UCA: Too many to list. A few favorites. 1. I loved our very first class meeting as freshman; it bonded us all till the end. 2. Gymnastics, every single moment, including the two broken arms. 3. I loved our old library in the dungeon and visiting with classmates there. 4. The Navajo mission trip. 5. The creaky old windows in the old Ad Building. I am sure that new Ad building is fantastic but nothing will ever beat the charm of our old Ad Building; it was just downright darling.

I remember Mr. and Mrs. Wesslen were very kind to me as a new student. She was the registrar. Very good people. Mr Peach, the band director (Jerry Lange) & Jim Brackett were great teachers. I made several life long friends there.

I met Viki Osborne at UCA in 1968-69. We became best friends and still are 50 years later. Don't see each other much now but did early on. We were part of each other's weddings, went on vacations together with our families and spent time at each other's homes. Worked hard trying to not get kicked out but had lots of fun at UCA. Even got our names engraved in the ceiling of new dorm when it was being built. Was there for years but don't think you can see them now.

Share a memory of UCA: Climbing the water tower with Chris Shepley. Folk songs with Chris Shepley in Girl's Dorm lobby. Rigging all-night lights in my room..... The BEST CINNAMON ROLLS EVER BY CLASSMATE BOB ROBERTS! Boy's Dean, Bob Hoffman, knocking on our door one night, then walking in with his master key as the illegal record player in the top drawer of my dresser slowly stopped playing Bridge Over Troubled Water. It stopped b/c we had rigged a switch in the door--but Mr. Hoffman could hear it winding down. He sidled over to the dresser and tried to open the top drawer, but it was nailed shut. Of course, he didn't know that you had to get to the player through the hinged top of the dresser which had a doily and some bottles of cologne on it. He said, "Hmmm--Simon & Garfunkel--I like them. But you know, you should probably take that player home." Which I did, and I thought that was much better than what would've been done in the recent past when it would've been confiscated. UCA was a good place & time for me.

Finding ourselves, who we are, and what we want to be.

Tim Schaeffer and I worked in the dish-room together and were both social outcasts. He had the excuse of being a geek and gangly. I had no such excuse. We bonded over the shared drudgery of cleaning plates, and also of occasionally stuffing bagels in our face... which may seem wasteful, but which gave us much joy. It may be worth noting that this was not an idle past-time, but a well-documented contest. Tim had genetic advantages, allowing him to routinely defeat me, but I'm totally over it now. Maybe.

WHO DO YOU KNOW WHO SHOULD BE AT UCA?

Every year, there are students who would LOVE to come to UCA, but they never even bother to inquire about applying because they think they can't afford it.

Let's get the word out! Because of generous alumni and other donors like YOU, there are many scholarships available for students. The dream of attending UCA can become a reality!

Don't let the price tag be the determining factor in whether a young person can experience the quality education and family environment at UCA. Tell them about the scholarships they might qualify for, and encourage them to call the recruiter Donivan Andregg (509-245-3680) to schedule a tour, or the VP for finance Pamela Lersbak (509-245-3615) to see what scholarships they qualify for!

Scholarships available:

- Worthy Student Scholarships
- FoundationOne Scholarships
- Named Scholarships
- 3-Way Pioneer Scholarship
- 2-Way Matching Scholarships
- Single Parent Scholarships
- Hourly Work Scholarships
- Hispanic Scholarships
